Congratulations! 🎉

You have been accepted to participate in this year's Undergraduate Economics Society and the Economics Department trip to New York City! This will be great networking experience to meet some amazing UC Alumni and firms that are hiring our students.

This trip will take place from January 15th through January 19th. Transportation to and from the airport, airfare, the hotel stay, and 1-2 dinner will be paid for by the Economics Society for this trip. You're responsible for funding the remaining meals, public transport costs (i.e. Subway), and any activities you would like to do on your free day.

We're thrilled to have you on board for this exciting opportunity to visit institutions like Compass Lexecon and US Bank, among other highlights—and, of course, experience the Big Apple 🗽. Deadline to respond is Monday, December 9, 2024. I apologize for the tight turnaround; however, to keep our reservation with our flights, I need this information as soon as possible.

To confirm your spot on the trip, please fill out this Google Form.

If you need more time to decide, please don't hesitate to reach out to me.

If you are unable to join us, kindly let me know as soon as possible so we can offer the opportunity to another student.

Feel free to reach out to me if you have any questions.

Best,

Subject: Honors Grant Awarded

Date: Tuesday, April 23, 2024 at 9:53:28 AM Eastern Daylight Time

From: webcentral@ucmail.uc.edu

To: Sharma, Mehak (sharmmk)

Dear Mehak,

I am pleased to inform you that you have been awarded a $400.00 grant from the University Honors Program to support your proposal “Credit-Bearing Study Abroad”, Congratulations!

Please be sure to read the following information. The details are very important to understanding how grants are awarded.

These funds are posted to a student's account as a scholarship and can affect the student's financial aid. A student's financial aid award could be adjusted as the result of receiving a scholarship. If a student has concerns about how a scholarship could affect his/her aid, the student should contact OneStop. If you have concerns about whether we should post the award to your account, please contact Tricia Yee (tricia.yee@uc.edu) as soon as possible. You will see the funds posted on your account as the "Mary Rowe Book Award".

If a student is awarded a grant but does not participate in or complete the program/project for which the grant was awarded for any reason, he/she will be required to reimburse University Honors for the full amount of the grant. Students should set up direct deposit for disbursement of refunds. For more information, go to: <https://www.uc.edu/about/bursar/refunds/direct-deposit-enrollment.html>.

If a student has a balance due to the university the grant will be used to cover the balance. If there are remaining funds from the grant after the balance has been paid or if a student is paid in full the remaining amount (or full amount if there was no balance due) will be paid directly to the student. If a student does not have direct deposit set up with the university the reimbursement check will be sent to the address that is on file with the university. Be sure to keep your address current.

All students traveling internationally on a UC-sanctioned program or experience (this includes private travel that you are turning into an honors experience) are expected to attend a UC International Programs pre-departure orientation at least two months prior to your anticipated travel date.

Dates for pre-departure orientations are published on the UC International Programs website.

If you have any questions or have a different idea for a project please contact your advisor as soon as possible.

Again, congratulations! Please let me know if you have questions.

Hello Mehak,

I am excited to be the first to say Congratulations! We have confirmed your admission to the University Honors Program at the University of Cincinnati!

Welcome to this inclusive community of aspiring global citizen scholars who look to pursue their passions while making an impact on campus and in their communities. As a University Honors student, you will have a wealth of opportunities to enrich the remainder of your collegiate experience. I'm so excited to help get you started.

Please read the remainder of this e-mail closely, as it contains important information to help you kick-start your University Honors experience.

Next Steps

1. Gateway to University Honors Seminar (HNRS1010)

As stated in the application, all members of the University Honors Program are required to take a 1-credit course, Gateway to University Honors (HNRS1010). You cannot take HNRS1010 in the fall. Please register for one of the sections listed below in Catalyst by 12:00pm, Wednesday, January 4.

- Section 001: Mondays, 2:30-4:20pm; (Class#: 42518)
- Section 002: Wednesdays, 3:35-5:25pm; (Class#: 42519)
- Section 003: Thursdays, 2:00-3:50pm; (Class#: 42520)
- Section 004: Online Asynchronous (Class#: 42521)
- Section 005: Online Asynchronous (Class#: 51998)

All HNRS1010 sections will begin the first week of the spring semester and are sprint courses, so they will conclude halfway through the semester.

Gateway to University Honors (HNRS1010) does NOT carry a fee. If you are taking the maximum number of credit hours (18) as a full-time student, you can still enroll in the class without being charged additional tuition fees. If you were taking 18 or more credit hours, you should already have authorization to schedule this class. If you have any blocks that keep you from registering, you should work with your college academic advisor to add this course before as soon as possible. Know that UC will be closed from December 23-January 2.

2. Honors Seminars are Open

As a University Honors student, you now have access to honors seminars—3-credit hour interdisciplinary courses taught by some of the best faculty around campus. These courses can also satisfy certain BoK requirements and count as an honors experience. These classes have no pre-requisites and are open to students from all years and majors.

Here's some examples of our unique seminars that are still open:

- AFST3197/HIST3197: Uncomfortable Truths: From Africa to #George Floyd

TuTh 1:00-2:20pm, Class #47186/47194

- ENGL2089: Intermediate Composition (Sections 002, 004, and 008 only)

See Catalyst for Details

- FILM3018/DMC3018: Decolonial Game Design
TuTh 2:00-3:20pm, Class #49407/49408
- JUDC3100/HIST3100/RELG3100: Studying the Past, Saving the Present: New Paradigms for Peace in Israel-Palestine
TuTh 9:30-10:50am, Class #49258/49259/49261

For those who still need ENGL2089 or are scheduled to take it next semester, consider taking the honors sections to also get credit for an honors experience. Finding honors seminars can be tricky on Catalyst, so visit our site and follow the video for directions navigating Catalyst.

3. Advisor Welcome

Your University Honors advisor will reach out to you in early January to welcome you to the program, and they'll make plans to meet with you later in the spring semester. Please don't hesitate to reach out, let us get to know you and welcome you to our amazing community.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Once again, welcome and have a great break!

PLAN AHEAD! – The University Honors Program and other UC offices will be closed Friday, December 23 through Monday, January 2 (during Winter Season Days), reopening Tuesday, January 3, 2022.
