To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to recommend Christian Negri, who completed a six-month internship within the financial advisory team at Mediobanca Premier. During his time with us, Christian consistently demonstrated professionalism, strong analytical ability, and an exceptional willingness to learn.

As part of his role, Christian supported our advisors in portfolio analysis, client relationship management, and market research. He proved to be highly reliable and proactive, showing strong attention to detail and an excellent grasp of financial concepts. His enthusiasm and curiosity for understanding market dynamics were evident from the beginning, and he quickly adapted to a demanding and fast-paced environment.

Beyond his technical skills, Christian stood out for his team spirit, communication skills, and discipline. He was always respectful, eager to contribute, and capable of managing his tasks independently when required. His positive attitude and intellectual curiosity made him a valuable member of our team and a pleasure to work with.

I am confident that Christian's strong work ethic, quantitative mindset, and passion for finance will allow him to thrive in any competitive and international academic environment. I have no doubt that he will contribute positively to your program and future institution, just as he did here at Mediobanca Premier.

Please feel free to contact me should you require any additional information.

Sincerely,

Riccardo Carmacchi
